

HOUSER SEEKS SPEEDY TRIAL

Will Demand That He Be Given An Immediate Hearing On Charges Brought.

RALPH JACKMAN IS HIS ATTORNEY

Janesville Boy Who Is His Son-In-Law, To Appear In His Defense When Case Comes Up For Trial In Court.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Madison, Wis., June 7.—Secretary of State Walter L. Houser was arrested at his office today, charged with attempted bribery of a state officer. He will demand an immediate trial on the charge of offering for the Equitable Life Assurance society of New York to Commissioner of Insurance Zeno M. Host a bribe of a $2,000 campaign contribution in exchange for a decision of the Equitable surplus distribution case as dictated by the life insurance company. Prior to Mr. Houser's arrest he took counsel with his attorneys, Richmond, Ralph Jackman (son of C. W. Jackman of Janesville) & Swensen, and they advised him to file a demurrer on the ground that the facts as alleged by Commissioner Host did not set forth an offense within the meaning of the Wisconsin statutes. It is learned that Mr. Houser insisted upon going into court and demanding an immediate trial on the merits of the charge. He refuses to withdraw as a candidate for the republican nomination for a third term as secretary of state, and it appears that he believes he can profit by an early acquittal on the charge of attempted bribery. District Attorney Gilbert yesterday completed the drawing of the complaint and laid it before Insurance Commissioner Host, who signed and swore to it. A warrant for the arrest of Mr. Houser was issued forthwith by Judge Donovan in the municipal court and Mr. Houser, who was at his home in Mondovi attending the funeral of ex-Senator Whelan, was notified by Ralph Jackman, his son-in-law. He answered that he would hasten back to Madison for the service of the warrant and to demand immediate trial. His defense, it is said, will consist of a denial that he knew anything about the nature of the slip of paper which he handed to Commissioner Host for "Bob" Luscomb, the agent and lobbyist of the Equitable, and which paper was the decision proposed to be purchased by the $2,000 contribution to the La Follette campaign. He will also deny the allegation of the insurance commissioner, that Houser mentioned the sum of money. Here will be the clash of testimony and the jury will have to determine the facts. A search is being made for "Bob" Luscomb and if found he will be urged to come here and testify.

SYNOD'S CENTENNIAL TO BE CELEBRATED

Notable Public Meeting in New York Tonight—Two Hundred Seventy-Eighth Year of Church.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
New York, June 7.—The general synod of the Reformed Church in America, which is in annual session here, has arranged for a notable public meeting tonight in celebration of the synod's centennial. The meeting will be attended by fraternal delegates from the Reformed Church in Holland and from other ecclesiastical bodies in this country. The principal speakers will be Rev. Dr. James I. Vance of Newark, representing the church in the East, and Rev. G. H. Dublink of Holland, Mich., who will speak for the church in the West. While this is the 100th anniversary of the synod, it is the 278th of the church. Up to 1772 the church had been subject to the ecclesiastical authorities of Holland, but in that year the American Church was made independent and self-governing. According to the annual report, the Reformed Church has upward of 650 churches, and a total membership of about 120,000. The church has 100 missionaries in the foreign field and maintains three theological seminaries, two colleges and numerous preparatory schools. The church is strongest in and about Pennsylvania, New Jersey and New York and in the Middle West. Gradually strong churches are growing up in Iowa and even farther west, while a missionary work of some extent is being carried on among the colored people in the South.

BRYAN AGAIN ENDORSED; THIS TIME BY INDIANA FOR THE NOMINATION

Platform Adopted Is Almost Radical In Its Treatment Of Trusts And Other Matters.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Indianapolis, Ind., June 7.—The democrats of Indiana in convention today adopted a platform strongly endorsing William J. Bryan for president and selected a state ticket for all offices except governor and reporter of the supreme court. The platform says in part: "The growth of the trusts and other inordinate and dangerous combinations of capital are tremendous and the rapidly increasing absorption and centralization of wealth in the country in the hands of a chosen few is all due to premeditated and systematic legislation in behalf of special interests of the republican party. It demanded a change in policies imposed upon the country by that party and making and passage of restrictive laws of imperative necessity." "Protective tariff" is denounced and a tariff for revenue only demanded. The enactment of a pension law and equalization of widows' pensions are recommended.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Indianapolis, Ind., June 7.—A surprisingly large number of delegates to the democratic state convention in session here today are outspoken in their support of William J. Bryan. Many of them express the opinion that Mr. Bryan will be the next democratic nominee for President, or will name the nominee, and they want Indiana to send a delegation to the national convention that will have the Bryan stamp on it. The staunchest representatives of the Bryan sentiment are likewise the bitterest opponents of the so-called "Taggart machine," which is in control of the party in this state. They feel that so long as the Taggart faction remains in control the Bryan element will not have a chance to make much headway. Interesting developments along this line are looked for in the movement to reorganize the committee.

More than thirteen hundred delegates and as many alternates filed Tomlinson Hall when the convention was called to order at 10 o'clock this morning by W. H. O'Brien, chairman of the state committee. After the customary formalities had been disposed of Mr. O'Brien handed the gavel to Benjamin F. Shively, of South Bend, the permanent chairman of the convention. Mr. Shively's address was the principal feature of the forenoon. He spoke encouragingly of the democratic outlook in Indiana and dealt at considerable length with the leading issues, especially state issues. When he had concluded, the convention appointed the usual committees on resolutions, nominations, etc., and a recess was taken until afternoon to permit the committees to prepare their reports.

The convention will nominate a full state ticket with the exception of governor and lieutenant governor, which officers are not to be filled this year. Candidates for the principal places have been agreed upon and not much jockeying is expected in making up the ticket. The resolutions will deal principally with state questions after devoting a paragraph or two to the endorsement of the democratic attitude regarding the leading national issues.

LARGEST STEAMSHIP EVER BUILT LAUNCHED TODAY

"Lusitania" Slid Into Water At Clydesdale, Scotland—Will Carry A City's Population.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Glasgow, June 7.—An immense crowd that included many noted shipbuilders, engineers and others assembled today at the John Brown Company's Works at Clydesdale and witnessed the launching of the largest steamship ever built. The vessel is the Lusitania, one of the two mammoth ships being built for the Cunard company and which, if expectations are fulfilled, will smash all transatlantic speed records. The launching of the great ship was successful in every respect. The christening ceremony was performed by the Dowager Lady Inverclyde, widow of the former chairman of the Cunard line.

The Lusitania and her sister ship, the Mauritania, which is being built on the Tyne, are to have a displacement of 23,000 tons each. They are 290 feet longer than the celebrated Great Eastern and are the first vessels constructed that have a greater beam than that vessel. Each ship has about 28,000 tons of steel wrought into her. Some of the plates in the hull are 40 feet long and weigh four to five tons. The motive power will consist of our turbines, each of a designed indicated horsepower of 18,000. The speed is expected to reach 25 knots.

When facing the bridge the captain will be 110 feet above the keel and the four funnels each liner has will tower 154 feet above the keel. Two locomotives of the ordinary type could pass each other inside these enormous funnels. Every voyage the population of a good-sized town will be carried across the Atlantic. The luxuries on board will rival the finest hotels. The decorations will consist of reproductions of the greatest works of art, while the system of elevators between the various decks will provide for the rapid transit of the passengers from one part of the ship to another.

The Lusitania and the Mauritania will be practically unsinkable. Bulkheads divide the hull into a large number of separate water-tight compartments. On the bridge a lever controls the hydraulic gear and at a word from the officer in command every bulkhead can be closed instantaneously.

APPROPRIATIONS TO

LEAF INDUSTRY CUT

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Washington, D. C., June 4.—The agricultural appropriation bill as it passed the senate this week failed to contain the following provisions respecting the Bureau of Soils which the House had approved:

"To originate through selection and breeding improved varieties for the principal tobacco districts of the United States." "To secure as far as may be a change in the methods of supplying tobacco to foreign countries." And an appropriation of $5,000 for experimental work in raising tobacco in Onondaga county, New York. Instead of retaining these provisions the Committee on Agriculture increased the total appropriation for the work of the Bureau of Soils from $185,000 to $200,000, which was agreed to by the senate.

With respect to the first appropriation, much good has been done in selecting and breeding types of tobacco, and it is presumed that the agricultural department will continue with this work out of the regular appropriation, as it is not felt that the work merely desired not to specialize any work to which the appropriation should be applied. The failure of the senate to adopt the provision "to secure as far as may be a change in the methods of supplying tobacco to foreign countries" is naturally regrettable to Representative Mudd, of Maryland, who, in the interests of the tobacco planters and farmers in Maryland and Virginia, had this provision inserted in the bill while it was under consideration in the House. This was a "knock" at the foreign Regies, who Mr. Mudd declared, absolutely controlled the price of tobacco in those states, and it was with a desire to bolster up prices on tobacco raised in these states that the Maryland Congressman proposed the amendment. The only explanation given for the elimination of the Onondaga experimental work is that the senate prefers not to make specific allotments for surveys or experiments in any particular congressional district.

The agricultural appropriation bill is at present before the House Committee on Agriculture. Later it will go to conference and Representative Mudd hopes to secure the reinsertion of the provision of which he was the author. The fight over the question of the inspection of meats will delay final action on the agricultural bill.

LONGWORTH IS TO RETURN

However in Many Districts It Is Said the Elephant Representatives Cannot Be Re-elected.

(By William Wolf Smith.)
Washington, D. C., June 6.—(Special Correspondence.)—The bureau of manufacture of the Department of Commerce and Labor has issued a number of interesting reports from consular officers in Germany, France, Belgium and Russia on the operations of pawnshops in those countries. Writing from Berlin, Consul General Thackara says there are no pawnshops under the management of the municipal authorities in Berlin but there is a royal pawn office and numerous private pawnbrokers, who have to be licensed and are strictly regulated by law. The Royal Prussian pawn office was established in 1834 under the control of the royal bank. The purpose of its establishment was the promotion of the common welfare, and all profits from the business or any surplus which remains after charging a moderate rate of interest and deducting costs of administration, are devoted to charitable purposes. The institution lends from one-half up to two-thirds on the estimated value of goods pawned. Persons desiring a loan must be identified to the keeper of the pawnshop. The lowest amount upon which money is loaned is 71 cents. A branch of the royal pawnshop is the locality where the poor class reside, a loan is made on 17 cents and a rate of 12 per centum per annum is charged on all loans by the royal office. The surplus donated from the royal pawnshop to charitable purposes is not large, amounting in 1904 to only $2,131. There are 174 private pawnshops in Berlin, so much more conveniently situated than they take the business away from the royal office. The appraised value of the loans of the royal pawn office was at the close of March, 1905, $1,067,398, and the working capital in January, 1906, was $883,072.

Consul General Mason at Paris says that the municipal pawnshop system of Paris is a venerable institution, having been founded in 1777. It is a distinct bureau of the government and includes in its control three members of the committee of public charities, three private citizens and the perfect of the police. There are 21 branches of the main pawnshop. During 1904, 1,499,168 loans on jewelry, clothing, bicycles, etc., were made of the average amount of $9.46 and the total loaned was $9,361,925. Eight per cent on jewelry and 6 per cent on other articles were the prevailing rates of interest. In 1904 the profits of the municipal pawnshop amounted to $392,417, which was turned over to the support of municipal hospitals. The Paris pawnshop is an absolute monopoly, no private pawnbroker being allowed to do business in the city. There are, however, brokers who pawn tickets who buy up these tickets at the municipal office and when the public auction of unredeemed pledges is held they make quite a bit of money on these tickets.

The administration of the pawnshop system in Brussels, which was begun in 1810 and which charges 6 per centum per annum on loans, is similar to that in Paris. The mayor of the city is president of the board and the pawnshops in Belgium are organized under the direction of the communal council, which approves the budget and accounts. In 1905 the establishment loaned on $12,794 pledges $1,253,173 and the net profit for the year was $6,401. The Brussels pawnshop is under the management of three appraisers, one of whom is an expert gold and silver smith, and other officers who keep daily records of the transactions of their departments, which are collected and compared daily before closing the office.

Vice Consul General Mueller at St. Petersburg says there are six institutions in Russia loaning money on chattels. The State Loan office which is controlled by the central government charges 6 per cent per annum. Only gold, silver, precious stones and valuables are accepted at this office. There is also in Russia a society for pawning chattels, the St. Petersburg City Loan office, the St. Petersburg Private Loan office and the St. Petersburg Municipal Loan office, which was organized in 1898 and has now a paid up capital of about a million dollars. In 1904 the loans aggregated $1,755,550, of which $1,569,000 was repaid. Goods unclaimed were sold at public auction, netting a profit of about $27,251.

Vice President Fairbanks and the late President McKinley were bosom friends for many years and Mr. Fairbanks, since the death of the late President, has never failed to send flowers to be placed on Mr. McKinley's grave. Mr. Fairbanks also journeyed to New York to attend a meeting of the McKinley Monument commission, of which he is president.

Now that the session of congress is drawing to a close and the summer speechmaking is about to set in, congressmen and politicians in general are seeking to the proper repair of their political forces. Representative Garber of the Fourth Ohio district declares that eight or ten congressional districts in Ohio that went republican at the last election will be turned into the democratic column this fall. Mr. Garber is chairman of the democratic state central committee of Ohio and has just returned from a visit to his home at Greenville, Ohio. "This will be due," said Mr. Garber, "to general dissatisfaction with republican rule in the

FLATTERING PRAISE BY NEWSPAPER

Issue of May Twenty-four Has Something Nice to Say of the Gazette.

Newspaper, the official trade paper of the newspapers and large advertisers, has the following flattering notice of the Janesville Gazette in its last issue of May twenty-fourth.

"The Janesville Gazette is one of the most conservative papers for the trade in the country and it is with pleasure the Gazette comes to say: Since 1845 the Janesville (Wis.) Gazette has been laying foundation for what is today absolute supremacy in that part of southern Wisconsin. That foundation and the item so necessary to the strength of any newspaper is its close relation to the people. The age of the paper does not figure so greatly in its prestige, it is in the advance of the time and development of conditions the newspaper has not been up with or even ahead of the times.

Janesville is a city of 15,000 population, the county seat of one of the richest counties in the northwest, which has a population of 32,000, a splendid distributing point in any direction and with a trade drawing power as far away as sixty to eighty miles. It is in the direct center of the tobacco and sugar belt of Wisconsin, from which a million and one-half dollars each year is netted to the growers. This is but one item of the many going to enrich the people of the community. Nearly every body in the district has money in plenty and this class of people go to make up the subscription list of the Janesville Gazette. Only those who pay are permitted to remain on the subscription lists, and those people who pay for subscriptions have money with which to buy advertised articles. For this reason the Janesville Gazette has always been a splendid puller for business with general advertisers.

The publishers of the Gazette have always maintained that there is not a paper in the northwest for a community which compares with this publication, and the facts seem to bear out its claims. It has been the untiring aim of the publishers to produce the best possible newspaper at all times, and that their efforts have borne fruit is shown in its large subscription lists.

Between its daily and semi-weekly editions a present circulation of over 6,000 is secured for its advertisers, giving more circulation than any other three mediums in the county combined. The first aim is to produce the best newspaper, and with this essential point only covered the advertiser secures an excellent investment.

Great care has always been used in barring objectionable matter from the columns of the paper, and the small advertisers, through the special makeup of two pages from which large advertisements are barred, secure good position and prominence for their announcements. As a matter of fact it is absolutely necessary for the advertiser who desires to cover that section of southern Wisconsin, to use the Janesville Gazette, as in no other way can he reach the people.

GOOD GAME OF BALL BY COLORED TEAMS
Exhibition at Fair Grounds Under Auspices of Eagle Lodge Pleased the Fans.

About two hundred people witnessed the baseball game between the two colored teams known as the Cuban Giants and the Jeland Giants at the fair grounds yesterday afternoon. Large puddles and mud sloughs on the diamond which even a coating of sawdust failed to obliterate gave to the exhibition a sort of marine aspect. The visitors put up an excellent game and the contest was fast and snappy throughout. In the seventh inning the score stood 5 to 5 and the issue was in doubt until the last half of the ninth inning when the Cuban Giants got in a run, giving them the game by the score of 6 to 5. William Carlson of this city was umpire and his decisions were fair and impartial.

Mrs. Charles Smith, wife of a business man of Allendale, Ind., was burned to death following an explosion of kerosene.

VACATION PLANS OF THE PASTORS

WHERE JANESVILLE MINISTERS WILL TAKE THEIR REST.

SOME ARE STILL UNDECIDED

Others Have Practically Arranged Outings—Church Work Less Strenuous in Summer.

Whether the forces of evil are supposed to be quiescent in the summer prostrated with heat, or the people are supposed to be less susceptible to their influence there the fact remains that in summer the churches, as a rule, relax in every department and pulpits are vacant for more or less of the time. Then the pastors are taking their vacations. The ministers deserve these rests to recuperate. Some people imagine that the pastor has to prepare two sermons a week, look after the prayer meeting and make a few calls. Why should he need a vacation?

Rest is Much Needed
When one considers the many problems of finance, of the personal condition, the differences to be reconciled, the elements to be kept in harmony, the goal of the individuals to be looked after and the thousand problems of the church that the pastor has to take time and effort, the funeral services, the annoyances that only a pastor knows, no wonder they need a vacation and a change of scene. Were it not for the love of the work and the conscientiousness of a divine call ministers would not be ministers. The pay certainly is not the end for which they labor for the remuneration is small compared with other callings making such demands. Its reward is in the consciousness of good done for fellowmen and in the knowledge that the world is better than otherwise it would have if they had not labored.

Some Union Services
Janesville pastors take their vacation with the rest and they deserve every day of relaxation they are allowed. Some of the churches close during this period, some arrange for union services where one pastor looks after the flock of another and the favor is returned and some secure a supply from among the students at some theological seminary. During July and August the Congregational, Methodist, Baptist and Presbyterian societies will hold union services in the evening. Local pastors go far and wide in search of rest and recreation. The bulk of the country are their playgrounds whether they go for long or short scattered from New England to the Pacific coast and beyond. Some will be in the mountains, some will be on the shores of the sea and others will not go far from their home city. Not all the occupants of Janesville pulpits have made their vacation plans but the interests of some have been discussed and as their parishioners are interested in their movements they are here set forth with more or less consciousness.

Presbyterian Church Closed
During the month of August the Presbyterian church will be closed. Every department will cease work and it is expected that all the church officers and members, the Sunday school workers and pupils and the members of the church societies will return on the first of September to take up the work with renewed vigor and a spirit. Dr. J. W. Laughlin has outlined his plans for this period. On two Sundays he will supply for brother ministers in Chicago pulpits. With his family he will take a week or two camp life at some nearby resort, probably Lake Delavan.

Vacation Will Be Short
The Rev. Dr. J. H. Tippet of the Carville Memorial M. E. church has formulated no definite plans. However, he expects that his rest will be short this year, for the new church building, with the labors that are thereby added to his usual duties, has kept him busy all winter. The vacation will doubtless be taken early, in July probably, for the conference meets here in September and much attention must be given to this. During Mr. Tippet's absence the church work will go on as usual, the pulpit being filled either by a pastor of some church nearby or a college or theological institute professor.

To Escape May Fever
Rev. H. C. Boissier, rector of Trinity Episcopal church, has made no arrangements thus far. He wishes to flee from this part of the country during the May-fever season in August and it is likely that this will be the time of his vacation. The Sunday morning church services will be held each week during his absence, it being planned to have an outside clergyman here.

To Camp at Fox Lake
The Rev. Dr. M. Vaughan of the Baptist church will take his vacation through the month of August. He will spend the time camping at Fox Lake, Wis. His family and a number of friends will be with him. During this time the pulpit will be supplied for a few Sundays and it is possible that the church is to be closed one or two Sabbath days.

How Can Smith Drug Co. Sell as Good a Cigar as the Chico for 5c.
"You want me to talk about cigars," said Mr. Smith of Smith Drug Co. to a Gazette reporter.

"I think the better way is to let our cigars talk for themselves," he continued. "There is one cigar in our case, the Wadsworth Bros. Chico, which is doing a lot of talking, even shouting. I consider myself fortunate in seeing the agency for it, as it is in reality equal to any 10c cigar, and it costs only 5c."

"You see we buy it direct from the maker, and the middleman does not get any profit. At any rate, it is coming the best seller in our case, and people who heretofore would have nothing but a 10c or even 15c cigar, ask for a Chico and say they like it. Better try one yourself and see how good it is."

...FORTY YEARS AGO...

Janesville Daily Gazette, Thursday, June 7, 1866.—Emigration to the United States.—A few days ago, the steamship Atlantic, brought to the port of New York, 1,200 passengers all in good health. Since the 20th of May, over eight thousand emigrants have arrived at New York. The foreign newspapers announce that eight monster steamers will leave Southampton for New York during the month of May. Most of the southward steamers will take 700 or 800 passengers, chiefly Germans. This is the business from only one port. The tide of emigration to this country is unprecedented. Vessels are constantly leaving the various ports of the old world, loaded with people who come to make their home in the west.

The trial of Jeff. Davis has finally been postponed until the first Tuesday in October.

Lively Competition.—A spirited competition sprung up this noon between a couple of auctioneers on Milwaukee street. One attempted to attract a crowd by offering for sale a team that stood in front of his store, which judge being observed by the other he put up and commenced selling green backs at a discount of from five to ten cents. As might naturally be supposed, the first chap, lost his crowd very speedily.

Feniana.—The Chicago Republican devotes a column to Feniana matters in that city. It says: The activity of the Fenians of this city has not been diminished since the last report. They are still straining every nerve to send forward the men who are being poured in here from every quarter, and those at present in command are at work day and night. It records the arrival there of a regiment of Wisconsin Fenians numbering 511 men.

There is more Calamity in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, proved it to be incurable. Science has proven that it is a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by J. C. Chamberlain & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.

REBELS CLAIM VICTORIES
 GEN. TOLEDO SAYS HE DEFEATED CABRERA'S TROOPS.

Revolutionists Declare Recruits Are flocking to Join Their Columns at Guatemala.

Mexico City, June 7.—News received early Wednesday from Gen. Toledo, in command of the revolutionary party, says that he has, in two engagements, badly routed Cabrera's troops and as his forces are being reinforced by the arrival of large bodies of men he has no doubt of his success and triumphant advance to Guatemala City.

Operations are being conducted by Gen. Toledo in the absence of Gen. Barillas, who was detained by the Mexican authorities and who will be brought here.

The revolutionists point to Guatemala City telegrams as being evidently inspired by the Cabrera government to hide the fact of the defeat experienced at the hands of Gen. Toledo.

Col. Pinedo is in the province of Peten and has many recruits.

 GEN. TOLEDO SAYS HE DEFEATED CABRERA'S TROOPS.

Revolutionists Declare Recruits Are flocking to Join Their Columns at Guatemala.

Mexico City, June 7.—News received early Wednesday from Gen. Toledo, in command of the revolutionary party, says that he has, in two engagements, badly routed Cabrera's troops and as his forces are being reinforced by the arrival of large bodies of men he has no doubt of his success and triumphant advance to Guatemala City.

Operations are being conducted by Gen. Toledo in the absence of Gen. Barillas, who was detained by the Mexican authorities and who will be brought here.

The revolutionists point to Guatemala City telegrams as being evidently inspired by the Cabrera government to hide the fact of the defeat experienced at the hands of Gen. Toledo.

Col. Pinedo is in the province of Peten and has many recruits.

THERE'S A REASON.

While we are all like sheep in a certain sense, in following each other, yet, when it comes to selecting a doctor or a dentist or the spending of our money, we do not act without having a well-defined REASON for our actions.

This is why Dr. Richards has built up such a splendid dental practice. He furnishes a REASON for your selecting him to do your work.

A lady was just in to consult him this morning and she said, "You made my mother's teeth a year ago and she is delighted with them."

"You have worked for a number of my friends and they all said for me to come to YOU for my dentistry." So she had well-defined REASONS for her choice of a dentist.

To sum it up:

He gives you splendid work. He hurts you LESS than any dentist that ever looked in your mouth. He has a HEART when he comes to hand you your bill.

He goes to the limit to PLEASE you.

Now, in view of such facts does it not strike you that such a workman is just the man whom you wish to look after your teeth?

Lace Makers' Complaint.
A singular complaint is made by 230 people employed in a lace factory at Long Eaton, near Nottingham, England. Opposite the factory are a number of trees in a cemetery. The workmen say that whenever there is the slightest breeze the movement of the branches causes a blinking light, which seriously injures their eyes, the lace work demanding the closest attention.

THE PAUL REVERE OF WESTERN FAME

VISITS JANESVILLE ON A BUSINESS TRIP TODAY.

DARED DEATH TO SAVE LIFE

Sitting in the Myers hotel this noon was a young man who, on August fifth, nineteen-two, dared death in one of the wildest rides known in western history. Not only did he dare death, but he saved hundreds of others from death. He is known in Colorado as "the Paul Revere of the West." L. L. Loeb is his name and as he sits in a chair with his left side entirely helpless and modestly recounts his story he is the modest hero of fiction. Mr. Loeb was a cowboy before his wonderful ride from Woodlawn Park to Manitou and his headlong pitch down Rainbow Falls one hundred and two feet at its conclusion; now he is a traveling man.

His Ride
Mr. Loeb is a Chicago boy who went west to become a cowboy. On the memorable August morning in 1902 he was at Woodlawn Park, Colorado. A cloudburst up the Ute valley was sweeping down on the helpless settlers who were without warning. Risking his life to warn them, Loeb and his pony started on their breakneck ride of seventeen miles from Woodlawn Park to Manitou. It took him an hour and three minutes to accomplish it and during that time he was able to notify the settlers, so that they could flee to the hills and escape an awful death.

His Plunge
As a fitting end to his ride came his plunge over Rainbow Falls, down one hundred and seventy-one feet, over rock and through water, he was picked up more dead than alive. He has undergone twenty-nine operations, seeking relief from the awful numbness that has enveloped his left side. Now he has promise of relief from Dr. Lorenz of Vienna and sails on the fifteenth of July for Austria to seek help from his awful crippled condition.

Very Modest
Mr. Loeb is very modest in his recounting of his ride. He does not go into particulars, but merely acknowledges he made the wonderful journey ahead of the death-dealing wall of water. He is still under thirty and except for his paralyzed side appears as well as anyone. He says he can still ride a horse as well as he ever could and has in Chicago the very animal who, went over the falls with him on that eventful day. Mr. Loeb hopes for great results from his visit to Vienna.

CAPTURED ERRANT SWARM OF BEES

G. C. Harney, Figured in Interesting Episode on Roof of Pickering Store.

G. C. Harney, the insurance man, is a bee fancier and when word reached him this morning that a fugitive swarm was hovering about the roof of Pickering's grocery store he started for the scene on a run. After securing a large match-box and climbing to the roof of the building he made his way to the edge and found that about a thousand of these insects of a fine Italian species were collecting under the eaves. He began scooping them up with his hands and putting them in the box and in a few minutes he was literally covered with the little honey-makers. Presently he located the queen, a remarkably fine specimen, and clipped her wings so that the possibility of another migration might be obviated. One of the swarm stung Mr. Harney above the right eye, but that was the only injury he suffered. The latter's family have just arrived here from Racine and are moving into a home on Wisconsin street. Oddly enough there are several empty hives in the household goods which are on the way here and Mr. Harney thinks he has fared even better than the prophet who was led by the ravens.

HONOR HOWARD LEE AT STATE MEETING

Rock County Clerk Made Vice President of the State Organization in Milwaukee.

County clerks from the various counties of Wisconsin met yesterday afternoon at St. Charles hotel, Milwaukee, and formed a permanent organization to be known as the Wisconsin County Clerks' association. Officers were elected as follows:

President—L. H. Stauffacher, of Green county.

Vice president—Howard W. Lee of Rock county.

Secretary—Elmer S. Hall of Brown county.

Treasurer—William Bell of Racine county.

Initial steps toward the adoption of a constitution and bylaws were taken, to be followed by further action at the session this morning, which will bring the meeting to a close. Aside from social purposes, the object of the organization is to suggest such legislation as may be necessary for the good of the taxpayers of the state and to effect uniformity in the keeping of accounts.

The following county clerks were present at the opening session yesterday: Elmer S. Hall, Brown; Edward Hansen, Buffalo; Otto R. Krueger, Dodge; John H. Nygard, Eau Claire; L. H. Stauffacher, Green; J. L. Noble, Green Lake; R. E. Gribble, Iowa; William C. Crosby, Kenosha; John Brandt, Lincoln; A. A. Raisler, Outagamie; Frank O. Phelps, Milwaukee; Ole J. Hohl, Pierce; A. D. Bohm, Portage; William Bell, Racine; Howard W. Lee, Rock; H. S. Offendahl, St. Croix; Charles Jung, Sauk; Fred G. Brenner, Shawano; E. E. Watson, Sheboygan; S. B. Clark, Waushara; and Grant B. Harrington, Walworth.

The visitors spent the evening at Wonderland and all business was to be finished this morning. Many matters of interest to the clerks were to be discussed at this session. Among other things a uniform election law came up. The duties of clerks in various counties differ and it is sometimes a nice question as to which section a county is working under, and consequently what the duties of the clerks really are. The question of the tenure of office due such officials and necessary expenses for election will be taken up. Other matters of a like character will be discussed and committees appointed to prepare bills for presentation to the legislature. Organizations of a similar character are maintained in other states and it is the intention to secure the cooperation and membership of each of the seventy-one county clerks in the state.

TRAINS DELAYED BY WASHOUT AT ELROY

Through Passengers From North Over North Western Line Several Hours Late Today.

As the result of a washout near Elroy, all trains from Duluth and St. Paul or Minneapolis were from four to six hours late this morning. The 4:30 a. m. train arrived shortly after nine o'clock while the 5:20 and the 6:10 vestibules were combined and came in about 10:15. The 9:20 passed through but a few minutes before eleven o'clock. About thirty feet of track was destroyed near Elroy, twenty feet being washed out on one track and ten on the parallel. The report of a cyclone was entirely erroneous and no other damage was done there. However, Stoddard, Wis., a town near La Crosse, experienced a tornado and H. J. Alverson was killed, while four others were hurt. The hurricane centered, apparently, one and one-half miles east of Stoddard, Vernon county. It passed up Cocon valley, and Mormon Coulee, striking Stoddard and Brinkman. Telephone communication was crippled, and telegraph wires were down toward the south. In La Crosse there was considerable damage, though none were injured. Washouts are reported on the railroads in that vicinity. A bridge on the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy road near Stoddard was carried out and a passenger train, carrying two hundred passengers, was flagged at the brink of the gap by a farmer named Miller, and many lives were saved. Many farms are reported devastated.

RAIN FRIGHTENED ABOUT A HUNDRED

Only Three Hundred Took Woodman Special To Freeport Today—Others Went Later.

Heavy showers about an hour before the train left and the threatening clouds which remained in the sky kept many Janesville people from taking the special train to Freeport today for the annual Woodman picnic. It was expected that between four and five hundred would make the trip with the Imperial band and Foresters drill team, but the number was a few less than three hundred. The train was over the St. Paul road and departed from here at eight o'clock. However, some of those who were disappointed early in the day, took advantage of the special rates on later trains and over the electric line. Those who remained away regret it much for the day has become ideal for such a celebration as was planned. The rain settled the dust nicely and there is enough of a breeze to relieve the heat of its oppressiveness. Last evening the Woodmen drill team and Imperial band paraded the streets. At the corner of Main and Milwaukee streets the Foresters drilled and several hundred spectators blocked pedal traffic in the meantime. The work of the company was excellent and the liberal "hands" that were given them were surely deserved. Very intricate maneuvers were cleverly and precisely executed and only ill luck will keep the Janesville troop from bringing home one of the cash prizes.

RENTS PAID IN THE CITY OF JANESVILLE

Assessors Have Gathered Some Interesting Data For The State Tax Commission.

At the request of the Wisconsin State tax commission the five Janesville assessors have been gathering statistics of the rents paid in this city. The figures will not be used as a basis of local assessments but will be forwarded to Madison for the use of the state department. According to the findings the highest rent, considering the amount of space utilized, is paid by the Bowler City bank to Hayes Bros., $1,200 a year for the ground-floor apartment at the corner of Milwaukee and Main streets. One of the best paying properties is the two frame building in the center of the Milwaukee street bridge which for years has produced a revenue of $100 a month for the Myers estate. Some houses and flats in the city bring a rental as high as $300 a month but the number is small. There are a number of good dwellings that bring from $15 to $18 a month.

JANESVILLE BOYS AT ALVIN, MISSOURI

Charles Carlson, Chief Engineer For Big Mining Company—Arthur Anderson Also There.

Two former Janesville young men are now having much success at Alvin, Missouri. Charles Carlson, well known here and a graduate of the state university is acting as chief engineer for the Alvin Mining company, a concern owning and operating several properties in the Joplin lead and zinc regions and other mines in Mexico and Canada. Among his assistants is Arthur Anderson, a son of A. G. Anderson of Cherry street. He completed his high school course here in '99 and graduated from the state university in the electrical engineering course four years later. Don Hollawa, a classmate of the latter, who is now in the employ of the Chicago Telephone company, expects to join the two soon, entering the service of the same concern.

MARRIED IN TOWN OF ROCK AS SUN WENT DOWN

Miss Bertha Wachlin, Bride of Frank Karberg of Milwaukee.

Rev. C. J. Koerner of this city pronounced the ceremony last evening that united in marriage Miss Bertha Wachlin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John William Karberg. The wedding occurred at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. August Wachlin in the town of Rock at six o'clock. The bridal pair were attended by Oscar Karberg, Arthur Wachlin, Mrs. Matilda Wachlin and Miss Clara Karberg. After the nuptial knot had been tied an elaborate and delicious supper was served to about one hundred guests. The young people have numerous friends and were the recipients of many costly gifts. After a few days' visit here they will go to Milwaukee to live, where the groom is employed as a motorman on the street railway line.

Germer-Gleason
Miss Rose E. Germer of Pentwater, Mich., and Roy A. Gleason of Belden, Mich., were married here at three o'clock this afternoon.

Appointed Express Agent: Volney Atwood, son of Charles Atwood of this city, has been made the regular agent for the American Express Co. at Fond du Lac. He has been acting in that capacity for a considerable time and now permanently fills the vacancy caused by the death of the former agent.

Lay as if Dead: Reinhold Riedel, with a large cargo of liquor aboard, lay as if dead in the courthouse yard yesterday afternoon until the police were called and he was removed with considerable difficulty to the city lock-up. He had not fully recovered consciousness this morning and the officers suspect that he had been taking some drug in addition to the strong drink. It was the expectation that he would be brought into municipal court late this afternoon. He had not, however, appeared there up to 3:30.

Will Attend Synod: Rev. C. J. Koerner of St. Paul's German Lutheran church will attend the annual meeting of the Missouri Synod of the German Lutheran church, to be held at Milwaukee from the 20th to the 26th of the present month.

MINISTERS OBJECT TO SUNDAY SPORTS

Several Local Divines Met and After Discussing Subject Appointed Committee to Take Action.

Reverends J. H. Tippet, R. M. Vaughan, J. W. Laughlin, R. C. Denison, W. P. Christy and H. C. Boissier met this week and discussed Sunday baseball and Sabbath day sports in Janesville. In view of the fact that those present believed the sentiment of the city was against such desecration of the Lord's day a committee of Messrs. Denison and Vaughan was appointed to take some action. It is unofficially announced that nothing radical will be done and only a petition to which they expect to have a number of influential names attached will be presented to the managers of Sunday games. In support of their plea against the game the divines say that Cleveland, Ohio, and Indianapolis, Indiana, have stopped Sunday ball and they believe Janesville should follow the example.

STROKE DULLS NAVAL MAN

JUDGE ADVOCATE ASKS TIME TO CONSIDER CASE.

Surgeon Testifies Capt. Wynne Is Insensible to Duty Owing to Affliction Due to Heat.

New York, June 7.—Proceedings in the court-martial of Capt. Robert F. Wynne, of the United States marine corps, on a charge of insubordination were suddenly halted Wednesday after a naval surgeon had testified that Capt. Wynne was so insensible to his military obligations as to warrant his retirement.

The surgeon declared that this condition was brought about by a sunstroke while serving in West Indian waters.

Dr. J. C. Decker, a surgeon on the battleship Alabama gave the evidence. He said that Capt. Wynne had been under the treatment for sunstroke, that he suffered from insomnia, headache and defective hearing and that the witness advised putting him on the sick list but refrained at the captain's request. Dr. Decker said the physical condition of Capt. Wynne was such as to blind him to the fact that as a military officer he is under obligations to obey the orders of his superior.

"To what degree is Capt. Wynne insensible to his obligations to obey his superiors?" asked the judge advocate.

"Sufficiently insensible to warrant his being retired, in my opinion," replied Dr. Decker. "I believe you would punish an innocent man if you punished him."

The judge advocate informed the court that this put the case in a new light, and that he did not desire to assist in the punishment of an innocent man. He therefore asked the court to adjourn the hearing, to give him time to consider.

PACKING CHARGES DENIED

Agent for Chicago Meat Men Invites Congressmen to Investigate for Themselves.

Washington, June 7.—The house committee on agriculture Wednesday decided to comply with the request of the Chicago packers to be heard on the Neill-Reynolds' report regarding conditions in the Chicago packing houses. The request was made by Thomas E. Wilson, manager for the Nelson Morris company, but in this instance was authorized to speak for all the Chicago packers.

Mr. Wilson made a general denial of the existence of conditions in the packing houses of Chicago as set forth in the Neill-Reynolds' report. He began by inviting the committee to come to Chicago and spend a week in personal investigation of conditions. That, he said, would be the only way for members to gain a proper idea of what the conditions really were. Some of the suggestions made in the report, he said, had already been complied with by the packers, such as additional sanitary facilities.

"As to the charge that canned meats were boiled in water to 'freshen them up,'" Mr. Wilson said there was absolutely nothing in this. Canned meat, he said, was as good five years after it had been put up as it was five minutes afterwards, providing no air had got to it.

Why Doctors

Say "Drink Pabst Beer"

CAREFUL inquiry shows that doctors, in perhaps the large majority of cases, prescribe Pabst Blue Ribbon Beer because they know of its absolute purity and positive cleanliness.

"It is the cleanest and richest beer in the world," said one of Chicago's leading doctors the other day. "What appeals to me," he said, "is the Pabst process and Pabst eight-day malt, so very different from all the rest. We doctors appreciate sterilization and we are teaching the people in their homes the value of sterilization. On almost every visit we make we emphasize that. I have visited all the breweries of importance in the country, and I must say that for absolute cleanliness there is no beer to equal

Pabst Blue Ribbon

I prescribe it in my practice and drink it myself.

The aging of Pabst Beer is another point wherein the great Pabst brewery excels. Pabst is the perfectly aged beer. Not a bottle or a keg ever leaves the brewery until science and the test of time shows it fully aged and mellow, perfect in age, purity and strength.

When Ordering Beer, call for Pabst Blue Ribbon

Regimental Reunions and Forty-third Anniversary Battle Chickamauga, Chattanooga, September 18-20, 1906.

On September 18, 1906, will occur the forty-third anniversary of the Battle of Chickamauga. It is proposed to celebrate this memorable event with a reunion of the various regiments that participated in this memorable battle and the various battles fought around Chattanooga. This reunion will be held at Chickamauga National Park, September 18, 19, and 20, and the present indications are that it will be the largest and most notable gathering ever held in the South. On the above dates, the remnants of the armies of twelve states, comprising the following: Pennsylvania, Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa, Nebraska, Missouri, Kansas and Kentucky, will assemble, many of the first and last time since they marched from its blood-stained fields, forty-three years ago.

Here is one of the greatest opportunities for the education of the youth. Don't fail to take your children and show them historic Chattanooga, with all its historical connections. It is the opportunity of a lifetime. Go and see the old war generals and other officers point out the places of interest on the battlefield; let them show you and explain, in person, the markers erected on the battlefield showing the positions of the opposing armies at the time of battle. It will not be long until none will be left to do this noble work. It will be many years, if ever again, that such an opportunity will present itself. See that your tickets read via the Louisville & Nashville R. R., the Battlefield Route. Call on your nearest railroad agent for rates and advertising matter pertaining to the reunion, or write nearest representative of the Louisville & Nashville R. R.

DILG AGENCY

Take Your Choice—a Drug or a Food

Physicians of the highest scientific attainments unite in declaring that coffee is a form of slow poison—a pernicious drug. They point out that it darkens the blood, clogs the liver, colors the skin, weakens the heart's action and ruins the digestion of all who drink it. On the other hand, doctors declare that a pure bottled beer, properly brewed from Malt and Hops, and fully aged, like is a most wholesome and delicious beverage. Gund's Peerless Beer being made from malted barley, is essentially a "food-stuff" of high nutritive value. If drunk regularly with meals it clears the liver, enriches the blood, brightens the skin, stimulates the gastric secretions and wonderfully promotes the digestive process. Thus it is that the beer-drinking races of men are the healthiest and in the forefront of the World's progress.

Professor Moerschort, the celebrated German savant, says: "A good beer is as nutritious as fruit. Fermented liquors taken in moderation increase the secretions of the digestive juices and promotes the assimilation of food."

PEERLESS BEER won the Gold Medal at the St. Louis Exposition for highest excellence. Contains less than 3 1/2% of alcohol, therefore is really a temperance drink. Doctors prescribe it for the weak and sick. Used at all high-class health resorts. Delivered at homes on request by phone or mail. Sold at all cafes, saloons, hotels and buffets. Bottled only at brewery.

CHAPTER XXI.

AT the village of Bittie, some seven miles from Jerusalem, the embassy dismounted to rest; then again they pressed forward down the valley in the hope of reaching the Zion gate before the midday heat was upon them. At the end of this valley swelled the shoulder of a hill, whence the eye could command its length, and on the crest of that shoulder appeared suddenly a man and a woman, seated on beautiful horses. The company halted, fearing lest these might herald some attack and that the woman was a man disguised to deceive them. Wulf looked at them curiously and said to Godwin: "Almost could I think that those two horses were Flame and Smoke reborn. Note their whirling pace and strength and stride."

"Almost as he finished speaking the strangers pulled up their steeds in front of the company, to whom the man bowed his salutations. Then Godwin saw his face and knew him at once as the old Arab called Son of the Sand, who had given them the horses Flame and Smoke."

"Sir," said the Arab to the leader of the embassy, "I have come to ask a favor of yonder knights. This woman"—and he pointed to the closely veiled shape of his companion—"is a relative of mine whom I desire to deliver to friends in Jerusalem, but dare not do so myself because the hill dwellers between here and there are hostile to my tribe. She is of the Christian faith and no spy, but cannot speak your language. Within the south gate she will be met by her relatives. I have spoken."

"Surely we will take her," said Godwin, "though what we shall do with her if her friends are wanting I do not know. Come, lady, ride between us."

She turned her head to the Arab as though in question, and he repeated the words, whereon she fell into the place that was shown to her between and a little behind the brethren.

"Still, if so, I pray you of your knightly courtesy," went on the Arab to Godwin, "disturb not this woman with your words nor ask her to unveil her face, since such is not the custom of her people. It is but an hour's journey to the city gate, during which you will be troubled with her. This is the payment that I ask of you for the two good horses Flame and Smoke."

"It shall be as you wish," said Godwin, "and, Son of the Sand, we thank you for those horses."

"Good. When you want more let it be known in the market places that you seek me." And he began to turn his horse's head.

"Stay," said Godwin. "What do you know of Masouda, your niece? Is she with you?"

"Nay," answered the Arab in a low voice, "but she bade me be in a certain garden of which you have heard, near Asenon, at an appointed hour to take her away, as she is leaving the camp of Salah-ed-din. So thither I go. Farewell." Then with a reverence to the veiled lady he shook his reins and departed like an arrow.

Godwin gave a sigh of relief. If Masouda had appointed to meet her uncle, the Arab, at least she must be safe. Then he looked up to find Wulf staring back at the woman behind him and reproved him, saying that he must keep to the spirit of the bargain as well as to the letter, and that if he might not speak he must not look either.

"That is a pity," answered Wulf, "for though she is so tied up, she must be a tall and noble lady by the way she sits her horse. The horse, too, is noble, own cousin or brother to Smoke, I think. Perhaps she will sell it when we get to Jerusalem."

Then they rode on and reached the gate of Jerusalem, which was crowded with folk awaiting the return of their ambassadors. They all passed through, and the embassy was escorted thence by the chief people, most of the multitude following them to know if they brought peace or war.

Now Godwin and Wulf stared at each other, wondering whether they were to go and where to find the relatives of their veiled companion, of whom they saw nothing. Out of the street opened an archway, and beyond that archway was a garden, which seemed to be deserted. They rode into it to take counsel.

"Jerusalem is reached, and we must speak to her now," said Wulf, "if only to ask her, whether she wishes to be taken."

Godwin nodded, and they wheeled their horses round. "Lady," he said in Arabic, "we have fulfilled our charge. Be pleased to tell us where these kindred to whom we must lead you."

"Here," answered a soft voice. Then the lady let slip her cloak, though not her veil, revealing the robe beneath.

"By St. Peter!" said Godwin. "I know the broidery on that dress. Masouda! Say, is it you, Masouda?"

As he spoke the veil fell also, and lo! before them was a woman like to Masouda and yet not Masouda. The hair was dressed like hers, the ornaments and the necklace made of the claws of the lion which Godwin killed were hers, the skin was of the same rich line, there even was the tiny mole upon her cheek, but as the head was bent they could not see her eyes. Suddenly, with a little moan, she lifted it and looked at them.

"Rosamund! It is Rosamund herself!" gasped Wulf. "Rosamund disguised as Masouda!" And he fell rather than leaped from his saddle and ran to her, murmuring, "God, I thank thee!"

Now she seemed to faint and slid from her horse into his arms and lay there a moment.

"Yes," said Rosamund, feeling herself, "it is I and no other, yet I rode with you all this way and neither of you knew me."

"Have we eyes that we can pierce veils and woven garments?" asked Wulf indignantly, but Godwin said in a strange, strained voice:

"You are Rosamund disguised as Masouda. Who, then, was that woman to whom I bade farewell before Saladin while the headman awaited me—a veiled woman who wore the robes and gems of Rosamund?"

"I know not, Godwin," she answered, "unless it were Masouda clad in my garments as I left her. Nor do I know anything of this story of the headman who awaited you. I thought—I thought it was for Wulf that he waited—oh, heaven, I thought that."

"Tell us your tale," said Godwin hoarsely.

"It is short," she answered. "After the casting of the lot, of which I shall dream to my death day, I fainted. When I found my senses again I thought that I must be mad, for there before me stood a woman dressed in my garments, whose face seemed like my face, yet not the same."

"Have no fear," she said. "I am Masouda, who, among many other things, have learned how to play a part. Listen. There is no time to lose. I have been ordered to leave the camp. Even now my uncle the Arab waits without with two swift horses. You, princess, will leave in my place. Look, you wear my robes and my face almost and are of my height, and the man who guides you will know no difference. I have seen to that, for, although a soldier of Salah-ed-din, he is of my tribe. I will go with you to the door and there bid you farewell before the eunuchs and the guards with weeping, and who will guess that Masouda is the Princess of Baalbec and that the Princess of Baalbec is Masouda?"

"And whither shall I go?" I asked.

"My uncle, Son of the Sand, will give you over to the embassy which rides to Jerusalem or, failing that, will take you to the city or, failing that, will hide you in the mountains among his own people. See, here is a letter that he must read. I place it in your breast."

"And what of you, Masouda? I asked again.

"Of me? Oh, it is all planned, a plan that cannot fail," she answered. "For not I escape tonight—I have no time to tell you how—and will join you in a day or two; also I think that you will find Sir Godwin, who will bring you home to England."

"But Wulf? What of Wulf? I asked again. "He is doomed to die, and I will not leave him."

"The living and the dead can keep no company," she answered. "All this is in your breast."

GIFT TO EMPLOYE GIVEN FOR NAUGHT

FUEL BUYER GATHERS IN SNUG COMMISSION.

THREE TO FIVE CENTS A TON

Coal Companies Allow Purchasing Agent for Pennsylvania Road Allowance, Which He Admits Retaining for Himself.

Philadelphia, June 7.—That he accepted gifts of stock amounting to $46,000 from coal mining companies during a period of about three years was admitted Wednesday by Joseph Boyer, chief clerk in the office of A. W. Gibbs, superintendent of motive power of the Pennsylvania railroad.

Mr. Boyer purchases the fuel coal used in the locomotives of the company and the donors of the gifts were the coal companies which furnished the fuel to the railroad. Mr. Boyer named five companies which allowed him from three to five cents on each ton sold to the railroad company. He declared that he never asked for the allowance, but accepted it because he believed he was following a custom of the department. In fact, one of the coal company officials told him that he had paid it before and wanted to continue paying it to the witness. Mr. Boyer denied that he divided the money with any other official or employee of the railroad. He said he kept it all.

A. W. Gibbs, Mr. Boyer's superior officer on the stand, said he was unaware that such conditions existed in his department.

Thousands for Nothing.

Mr. Boyer said he was at first disinclined to accept the money, but after thinking it over decided that he was doing nothing unusual.

"How long did you wrestle with your conscience?" queried Commissioner Clement. The witness did not know.

M. K. Reeves, assistant to Vice President Pugh admitted that he had accepted stock from Col. George S. Huff and David E. Williams. Col. Huff, he said, purchased some of his holdings in the Keystone Coal and Coke company, paying him $30,000 for it. Mr. Reeves stated that he has known Col. Huff since boyhood and declared the latter knew he was not in a position to favor him when the stock was presented.

Car Repair Contract.

A number of employees of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad were examined during the afternoon session and the commission endeavored to learn through J. E. Muhlfeld, general superintendent of motive power, something concerning the arrangement between the railroad and the H. C. Frick Coal company concerning the repairing of cars.

Mr. Muhlfeld admitted that the Frick company had advantages over other coal companies, but was unable to tell why. He said it had been the practice for the past ten years, but he did not know the terms of the agreement if one existed.

Denial by Claim Agent.

R. L. Franklin, a claim agent of the Pennsylvania railroad, denied that he had instructions to settle at once and without investigation all claims presented by the Berwind-White company and the Keystone Coal and Coke company.

R. H. Large, coal freight agent, amplified his testimony given at the last hearing in this city and explained why the Berwind-White company's coal for Harborside pier was not weighed at Altoona during a period in 1902 and 1903. He said that at the time there was a serious freight congestion and it was to relieve them as far as possible that the Harborside coal was charged by estimate weight.

George M. Shriver, assistant to the president, said he owned stock in several coal companies, but that he paid for it. U. B. Williams, division superintendent at Grafton; C. B. Garsuch, a trainmaster on the Pittsburgh division; W. A. Riley, trainmaster at Wheeling; T. W. Booth, assistant comptroller; S. W. Loree, division superintendent at Wheeling, and C. E. Bryan, superintendent at Parkersburg, gave unimportant testimony.

Tabooed by Moslems.

The ulamas of the University of Al Azhar have decided as to the phonograph and insurance that there is nothing in Islamic doctrine to forbid Moslems to listen to the phonograph, and that, if the verses of the koran are suitably intoned from the phonograph the listener may be justly considered to be performing an act of worship. Fire and life insurance are, however, condemned by the sheik as a gambling transaction contrary in spirit to the teaching of the koran.

Salmon in British Columbia.

All of the hatcheries of British Columbia have secured a full supply of salmon spawn and by the erection of fish ladders a very large district has been opened that had been cut off from the salmon for a number of years. The number of young salmon that will go to the ocean this year will be far greater than in any previous year, and an exceedingly large run may be expected in 1907.

No Resistance.

"I had expected there would be a great splurge at Miss Fawcett's wedding, but it seems to have passed off quietly."

"Oh, yes; the young man submitted to the operation without a murmur."—Chicago Tribune.

ALL BUGGIES LOOK GOOD
IN A PICTURE.

Good cuts, cleverly written descriptions, and temptingly low prices—these are the things the mail-order houses depend on to draw them business. When you send your money in advance to the mail-order house, what guarantee have you that you'll get a buggy as represented? Would you buy from us simply on our statement that the goods were worth the money we ask for them? Most decidedly we answer, No! Now, honestly, which is the more satisfactory way of doing business? Under the one system you send your money in advance, pay your own freight and take whatever the house sees fit to send you. If it happens to be all right, well and good; if not, it's a case of regret.

Our way is to show you all styles of vehicles in our large show room and let you personally select the outfit you wish, with the guarantee that everything will be absolutely as represented. This guarantee means something, for if anything should go wrong, bring your buggy to us and we will make it right. Our prices won't scare you. We can make a good buggy just as cheap as anybody on earth, and we can convince you of this fact if you'll give us a chance.

IF YOU BUY FROM US

We show you the goods—not a few styles, but all. You save the wear and tear of shipping, as you take your rig direct from the factory.

We don't ask your money in advance.

You have access to the factory for repairs that may be needed. Are these items worth anything? If so, let us figure with you on a new buggy.
